(2) If you do not have an institutional email address, do not want to use it, or the Shibboleth access described above does not work you can also create an account. Click on "Create new account" and you are redirected to a form where you can choose a username and password and enter some personal details and then click on "Create new account". A confirmation email will be sent to your email address including a link with which you can complete your registration. Please also check your Spam folder if you are not receiving an email.

How to access the DID-ACT moodle

The image shows two parts of the DID-ACT Moodle interface. On the left is the main login page with fields for Username, Password, and a 'Log in' button. Below these are options for 'Remember username', 'Log in as a guest', and 'Shibboleth Login'. A red circle highlights the 'Create new account' button in the 'Is this your first time here?' section. A red arrow points from this button to the 'New account' form on the right. The 'New account' form includes sections for 'Choose your username and password', 'More details' (Email address, Email (again), First name, Surname, City/town, Country), 'Other fields' (User Role, Institution / University), and a 'Site policy agreement' section with a 'Create my new account' button.

Login

If you are coming back to the DID-ACT moodle, the mode of logging in depends on whether you have created your own account or you have used the Shibboleth option. With your own account, please enter your login and password into the fields. In case you have used Shibboleth, please follow the same procedure as for the first time visit and click on "Shibboleth Login".

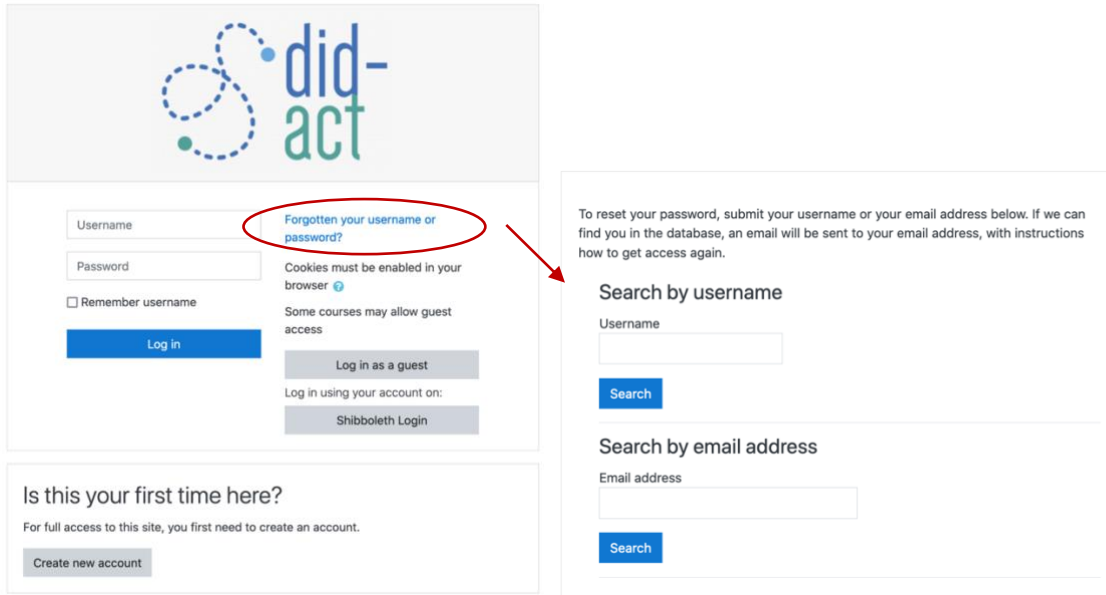

This screenshot shows the login page with red boxes highlighting specific elements. A box labeled 'Login with own account' points to the Username and Password input fields. Another box labeled 'Login via Shibboleth' points to the 'Shibboleth Login' button. The 'Create new account' button is also visible in the 'Is this your first time here?' section.

I have forgotten my password or login

If you cannot remember your login or password, please click on "Forgotten username or password". You will be redirected to a page where you can enter your username (=login) or email address. If your account can be found, you will receive an email with further instructions. Please also check your Spam folder if you are not receiving an email.

The image shows a screenshot of the DID-ACT Moodle login page. The top left features the DID-ACT logo. Below it is a login form with fields for 'Username' and 'Password', a 'Remember username' checkbox, and a 'Log In' button. To the right of the login form, there is a link 'Forgotten your username or password?' circled in red, with a red arrow pointing to a separate password reset form on the right. The password reset form has a heading 'To reset your password, submit your username or your email address below. If we can find you in the database, an email will be sent to your email address, with instructions how to get access again.' It contains two sections: 'Search by username' with a 'Username' input field and a 'Search' button, and 'Search by email address' with an 'Email address' input field and a 'Search' button. At the bottom left of the main page, there is a section titled 'Is this your first time here?' with the text 'For full access to this site, you first need to create an account.' and a 'Create new account' button.
